

Young Person and Adult Code of Conduct

To ensure everyone has the best time possible, below are the expectations for the Event:

Expectations

- Have the adventure of a lifetime!
- Follow our Scout Values – Integrity, Respect, Care, Belief & Co-operation.
- Follow all UK, local laws and site rules.
- Everyone should act and behave in line with our Scouting policies.
- Behave in a way that makes Humberside and UK Scouts proud.
- Scouting expects everyone to be treated with dignity and respect. There is no place for bullying.
- Use kind hands and kind words. Keep your hands, feet and other body parts to yourself.
- Follow all safety guidance given by Leaders, for all locations and activities.
- Report any worries or concerns to a Leader. If you are not happy with the response, please report it to another Leader.
- Sleep in your allocated tent.
- Electronic devices should only be used at appropriate times.
- Free time activities must be age appropriate and in line with our Scouting rules, values and UK law.
- No alcohol to be bought or consumed on site at Zellhof, when young people are on site.
- Knives, other than those provided, are not permitted on the event.

Failure to meet these expectations will result in an appropriate consequence, as outlined below:

Consequences

- Minor misconduct: A verbal warning will be given. The person may be asked to not take part in the rest of the activity.
- Repeated minor misconduct: The person will miss out on the next day's activities.
- Final warning for repeated minor misconduct: A conversation with members from the Core Team. For young people, this will also result in open communication with parents/carers.
- Major offence: The person will be sent home at the next available opportunity. For young people, parents/carers will be instructed to come and collect from the event at their own expense.
