

Turn the circle inside out

Description

Team Building game to solve a problem

Instructions

A circle is formed using all the players. Everyone joins hands and faces the middle of the circle. Everyone closes their eyes and tries to turn the circle inside out so that everyone is facing the opposite direction (outside of the circle) without letting go of each others' hands.

Hint: Two players standing next to each hold their hands up and the rest of the Players follow each other under their arms until they are all facing out.
